I wish there was a neutral option honestly but overall I did enjoy most of the game, and I do stress the word MOST. There is a part of the game where you play different characters and you will realize an immense amount of stuff has happened to the main character with little to no story or background behind it. What actually drove me to some anger was the ending where your thrown into random areas with little to no understanding and are unable to explore in some cases. The timeline doesn't add up, there is a ton of unanswered questions I found and I was honestly not satisfied as to why everyone including our main character is being turned into a demon through the eyes of another. Now I 100% know they are setting it up on purpose for DLC and probably needed to release this for some cash flow to
